15 The parties having stipulated that the language in the 16 plea agreement which was the basis of defendant Galstian's 17 plea in this case incorrectly referenced a second
18 superseding information when in fact no superseding
19 informations had been filed in this case. The parties agree
20 that the Court may issue this Order which amends, non pro
21 tunc, the plea agreement to eliminate the words "second 22 superseding" before the word "information" in the first
23 numbered paragraph. The parties understand and the record
24 shall reflect that the defendant pled guilty to the only 25 information that had ever been filed in this case, which was 26 dated January 10, 2005.
